Summary

Marketing Manager with 4+ years of experience in digital marketing, strategic planning, and team leadership. I specialize in building full marketing ecosystems — from market research and marketing strategy to content planning, ads management, and performance optimization.

I have led cross-functional teams (content creators, designers, media buyers) to execute data-driven campaigns that achieve clear business goals.

With a strong technical background in front-end development, SEO, and cybersecurity, I bring a unique analytical and problem-solving approach to marketing. Passionate about digital growth, brand building, and turning business challenges into scalable solutions.

Work Experience
