TARGET AUDIENCE

TM

TARGET AUDIENCE

AGE

- 1. Young Adults (18-24): This age group is typically highly engaged in gaming and has a strong affinity for technology. They are likely to be early adopters of new gaming platforms and enjoy a wide range of genres.
- 2. Adults (25-34): This age group often continues their gaming habits from their younger years and may have more disposable income to invest in gaming experiences.
- 3. Teenagers (13-17): Teenagers are a significant gaming demographic, and Apple's brand appeal and accessibility could attract them to the platform.

TM Platforms

TM Platforms

- 1. iOS Users: Apple's gaming platform would likely target iOS users, including iPhone and iPad owners. Since Apple's ecosystem is primarily based on iOS devices, the platform could leverage the existing user base to gain traction.
- 2. Mac Users: Mac owners would also be a potential target audience for an Apple gaming platform. Apple could explore cross-platform compatibility to cater to both iOS and Mac users.
- 3. Apple TV: If the platform supports gaming on Apple TV, it could attract casual gamers who prefer a living room gaming experience.

weaknesses

Reddit Ads Challenges

- Overflowing Content: Reddit's vast data and knowledge can be overwhelming for users seeking like-minded collective intelligence.
- Overlooking Content: Reddit users seek original and fresh content, which can be overwhelming without a consistent process.
- Targeting Audience: Tailoring ads to the most interested users can lead to articles or content getting lost in the extensive feed.
- User Impact: Positive user feedback can lead to increased website traffic.
- Challenges: Finding desired content can be overwhelming, especially if the content is not in line with Reddit's best practices.
- Brand Fit: Reddit's best practices for ads suggest staying casual, which may not be suitable for brands with a casual vibe.
