FREELANCERS & SMALL CREATIVES	Low cost, flexible, wide variety of content creators.	No professional structure, lack of consistency, no strategy beyond visual output.	Orca provides agency-level systems, account management, and long-term planning.
REGIONAL AGENCIES	Broader service portfolios, more resources, credibility.	Less focus on smaller cities like El Mahalla & El Mansoura; higher fees; less localized attention.	Orca brings premium expertise with local presence, cost efficiency, and tailored systems for mid-tier clients.
DIY MARKETING (IN-HOUSE TEAMS)	Full control over branding & communication.	Limited skillset, lack of access to advanced tools, poor exposure to wider marketing strategies.	Orca provides a professional external team that integrates advanced tools, strategy, and creative execution.
